Situated within the established Riverside Medical Clinic on River Road, St. Michael, this approximately 400-square-foot of single use air-conditioned office space offers an exceptional opportunity for medical practitioners or corporate professionals seeking a well-connected, high-profile location. The suite provides a comfortable and private working environment tailored to meet the needs of a modern practice or consultancy. Occupants benefit from shared access to professional building amenities, including a welcoming reception area to greet clients, alongside convenient kitchen and washroom facilities designed to support smooth daily operations. Positioned along a prominent corridor, the property enjoys excellent accessibility with the full suite of commercial amenities in Central Bridgetown located within easy walking distance. This prime St. Michael address combines proximity to the capital's financial and legal hubs with the prestige of a recognized medical facility, making it an ideal choice for establishing or expanding a business.
